ALREADY DISCOUNTED.

As with the True Voice, we were not surprised at the revelation by the Government of correspondence between certain radical Irish agitators in New York and personages of the German diplomatic service here last year. That such communications had passed was no secret. That the radical element of Irish sympathizers in this country was in close touch with the German Government and relied upon that agency to bring about Irish freedom was well known here through declarations made by leaders in the movement. Their pro-German sympathies and activities were pronounced and unceasing. But all this was before our entrance into the war as a foe of Germany. Why, then, the "expose" at this time when the whole country already knew of the connection between radical Irish leaders in New York and German agents? There can be only one reason for it. That is surely not to throw further discredit upon German diplomacy. It can be only because the administration wishes to discredit the aforesaid leaders of an Irish agitation in this country which always had a strong German tinge to it. They were already pretty well discredited among sensible friends of Ireland throughout the country. It would be interesting to know what they are doing today—not last year. The "expose" tells us nothing new. There may, however, be some trusting friends of Ireland in New York and elsewhere who need to be informed of the drift of affairs among the revolutionary friends of Ireland in this country. We never trusted them. Our reason was that they had the faculty of always getting Irish affairs into a bad mess just at the wrong time. How much of this was premeditated and how much was due to sheer stupidity we don't know. Perhaps there was method in their madness. At any rate they were not safe leaders for Irishmen in this country to follow. The fact that the United States Government is now making public their past folly only emphasizes the truth that intelligent friends of Ireland knew long ago.

DOOR YET OPEN.

Braun's Iconoclast says "Popa Benedict will be known as 'A Prince of Peace.' Regardless of the final outcome, no power can rob him of this glorious title. The Allies have declined to accept his Christ-like plea for the bleeding people of all the warring nations, but they have not closed the door to Hope. In fact, I think President Wilson's answer opens it a little wider. Pope Benedict's suggestions could not be ignored. They may be subjected to some modification, but none of the belligerents can afford to treat them lightly. There are 300,000,000 Catholics in the world. Loyal to every flag under which they live, Catholics are fighting on both sides of every battlefield. Their devotion and sacrifice give the Pope a perfect right to enter a plea for peace. He has spoken not only for his own children but for all mankind and for Christ. He has given form and expression to the soul of civilization and challenged the Christian conscience of the world. His action is worthy the exalted station he occupies. He has placed civilization, Christianity, and the human race itself under everlasting obligations."

THEY ARE NOT MANY.

While Irishmen of this country are certainly within their rights in keeping up the movement to have Erin declared free at the end of the world war, they should be careful not to embarrass America in any way in the war. With them, as with all others, it should be a case of America first. We are happy to say that, in the vast majority of cases, there is not the least ground for suspicion, but it must be admitted that the recent revelations at Washington throw some so-called leaders in a very bad light. The Irish movement, like all other political propagandas, can well afford to squelch a few of its more rabid noisemakers.

WRONG SOUND.

Not much attention is now given to the much heralded surmise that the Pope's peace proposal was inspired by the Central Powers. Instead the reply of Germany to the Pope's note is denounced as vague and unresponsive. Evidently the Pope's proposal of universal disarmament did not please the German liberals who have declared that German security can not rest on international agreements, but it must be founded on German might. That does not sound very peaceful.

AGAIN THE FIRST.

The attention of the Guardians of Liberty and other "patriotic" savers of the country is called to the fact that an American Catholic marine was the first man to die in Vera Cruz for the United States flag several years ago, and William T. Fitzsimmons, a Knight of Columbus, was the first United States officer to die for his country in France.

TIME HAS COME.

The Industrial Workers of the World are coming into their own, which means imprisonment or exile, preferably the latter, says the Catholic Union and Times. The one unfortunate circumstance connected with this anti-American organization is that it was permitted to get too strong a foothold ere any action was taken to smother the serpent's head.

The Very Rev. Augustine Stocker, O. S. B., the editor in chief of the Little Rock Guardian, left last week for Rochester, Minn., where he underwent an operation, which it is hoped may be a success in every way and that he will soon be able to resume his work in the journalistic field.

A birthday cake surrounded by pink candy roses and pink candies was the centerpiece of the table, which was decorated with asparagus ferns and pink roses. Crystal candlesticks with pink tapers and shades were arranged around the festive table. After dinner dancing took place.

Every ticket presented at the door will have a chance on a $250 gold piece.

"ONE BIG DAY."

The Columbia Athletic Club had a rousing meeting Monday night, President Camplin occupying the chair and keeping the business moving. When Director Brumleve announced that the club house debt had again been reduced there was hearty applause, which was repeated when prediction was made that the club would be free from debt the first of the year. Great preparation is being made for the annual "one big day" at the club house on Sunday, October 21, to which all friends of the Columbia boys are cordially invited. Committees were named for the November turkey raffle and a series of pleasant evenings. Dr. Riede, Joe Smith, E. C. Brueggeman, B. D. Brumleve and others made timely talks, in which they commended the interest taken by the members in the boys' now training at Camp Zachary Taylor.

Tierney, the poet priest and pastor of St. Joseph's church at Trenton, Mo., who has many friends in Kentucky, is spending a fortnight at the home of his cousin, Harry McKenna, "Glencoy Farm," on the Bardstown road. Father Tierney's writings have attracted widespread attention and are sought for nearly all the leading publications.

IMPROVING.

There will be rejoicing among his friends throughout the city to learn that the Rev. J. P. Mahoney, of the Cathedral, is slowly recovering from St. Joseph's Infirmary from an illness of typhoid fever with which he was stricken two weeks ago. Since coming to Louisville Father O'Mahoney has been an untiring worker, and to this alone is attributed his illness, which all hope will be of short duration.

FATHER CRANE BETTER.

We are glad to inform his friends throughout the city and State that the Rev. Father Dominick Crane, the venerable chaplain of St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, has recovered from his illness and is again able to say mass and resume his duties. Only recently Father Crane celebrated his golden jubilee, and the news of his illness was cause for much anxiety.

FEAST OF ST. FRANCIS.

The feast of St. Francis of Assisi, founder of the Franciscan order, was observed with solemn services at St. Boniface on Thursday. As has long been the custom, the Dominican fathers of St. Louis Bertrand's church had charge of the feast day services and celebrated the solemn high mass. In turn the Franciscans visit the Dominican church on St. Dominic's day.

DAN CUNIFF IMPROVING.

MAKIN COUNCIL.

Makin Council had a well attended meeting Monday night, but the only business of public interest related to the comfort and welfare of members of the Y. M. I. now stationed at Camp Zachary Taylor. President Hubbuch appointed a committee whose duty it will be to visit the camp and secure the names of the young men there, and then arrangements will be made for their entertainment while here.

WILL YOU NOT HELP?

Because of the fact that church facilities are so vitally necessary for the welfare of our camp, the Catholic Church Extension Society is once more appealing to the fathers, mothers and sisters who may have a son or brother now in training for Uncle Sam, to come forward with their donations, no matter how small they may be, for the purchase of the 125 mass outfits that are still needed by our army chaplains. Surely you would want the boys you know in the different camps to come home to you, when this awful war is finally settled, the same, if not better, than when they went away, wouldn't you? Well, help to provide the chaplains with the means of celebrating mass and other religious services and the boys who will come marching home to you some fine day soon, please God, will be better boys for the training and for the watchful care and solicitude of their chaplains. Mass outfits for army and navy chaplains may be purchased for a donation of $100. These outfits contain everything necessary for the celebration of mass and are neatly packed in a light-weight, ordinary sized suit-case. Think it over and let us know if the preservation of your boy's faith isn't worth a little sacrifice to you. Small and large donations will be cheerfully accepted by the Catholic Church Extension Society, whose offices are located at 750 McCormick building, Chicago, Ill.

Damp salt put on burns will kill the pain.

UNCLE SAM AT THE FINISH.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. Adelaide Fraass, beloved wife of Frank Fraass, passed to her reward Monday in her eighty-third year at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Muenninghoff, on the Eighteenth street road. Her funeral was held Thursday morning from St. Helen's church, Rev. Father Pfeiffer officiating at the requiem mass.

Fred Miller, aged sixty-five, beloved husband of Barbara Miller, 316 North Thirtieth street, was released from earthly care and suffering on Monday. He had spent many years in this city and had a great many old friends who mourn his death. The funeral was held Thursday morning from St. Anthony's church.

Dread pneumonia claimed as its victim Sunday night Miss Kate Ryan, aged fifty-five, of 1105 West Broadway. Miss Ryan had spent her life here and was held in high esteem in Catholic circles. Surviving are a brother, John B. Ryan, residing in California, and two sisters, Misses Alice and Anna Ryan, of this city. Her funeral was held Tuesday morning from the Cathedral.

Tuesday morning death entered the Ludwig home, 608 South Jackson street, and claimed eight-year-old Andrew B. Ludwig, Jr. Many friends will unite in a common sorrow for the passing of this bright and amiable boy, the one who brought sunbeams into an ideal Catholic home and whose voice and presence will be sorely missed by his father and mother and relatives. The funeral was held yesterday morning from St. Boniface church.

Sympathy of the community goes out to Frank Nolan in the affliction which came to him Sunday afternoon—the death of his beloved wife, Annie M. Nolan, after an illness of two months. Mrs. Nolan was born in Louisville and had lived here practically all her life. Besides her husband she leaves her father, Robert Dotson; a brother, William Dotson, and a sister, Mrs. Charles Ahrens. Her funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from her home, 1282 Bardstown road.

EGAN COMING HOME.

Hon. Maurice Francis Egan, American Minister to Denmark, who is convalescing from a surgical operation in Copenhagen, has been given leave of absence and will return to the United States to recuperate.

CHURCHILL DOWNS FEATURE.

The Golden Rod Stakes for two-year-old horses will be the feature at Churchill Downs track this afternoon and some of the most promising in the country are entered. Among those entered are Dr. Shafer, Clairvoyant, Honolulu, Katie Canal, Irma Schory, all fast ones. Next Monday the Cherokee Stakes for three-year-olds and upwards will be decided and on next Thursday the St. Leger Handicap will be the feature race for the closing day of the meeting. The attendance the past two days shows that old historic Churchill Downs is still popular with race-goers and it is expected a new record will be set for fall attendances.

BENEFIT RECITAL.

John McCormack, the world famous Irish tenor, gave a recital last Sunday night in Carnegie Hall, New York City, for the benefit of the families of soldiers of the famous Sixty-ninth regiment of New York. Mr. McCormack gave his services free and defrayed all expenses of the concert. The hall was packed from pit to dome and a big sum was realized.

K. OF C. CARD PARTY.

George H. Naber, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee of the Knights of Columbus, has arranged a series of euchre and "500" parties for the members and their lay friends and families beginning next Thursday, October 11, and continuing the two following Thursdays, October 18 and 25. The committee also announces a dance for Tuesday, October 16.

CHURCH GROWTH.

The rapid growth of the church in Montana is shown by the announcement of Bishop Lenihan's annual visitation of the Great Falls diocese, which began on Saturday, September 16, and ended this week. This year he administered the sacrament of confirmation and solemnly dedicated twenty new churches in missions on the Great Northern line of railway, also on the Soo near the Canadian border.

INDIGNATION

Caused by Insinuation Against Loyalty of Irish American People.

Pledge of Patriotism Sent to President by New York Citizens.

Few Individuals Block Government Plans For Selfish Interest.

ERIN'S SONS ALWAYS LOYAL

In view of the attempt of the pro-English press in this country to create feeling against the Irish people, Irish-Americans and the cause of Ireland, meetings of protest are being held throughout the country pledging loyalty to the United States and indignation against these insinuations. At a meeting held in the headquarters of the Irish-American League in the Summit Arcade this week Dr. Joseph P. Brennan, State Commissioner of Education, said:

"The few individuals scattered throughout this country who are serving their own selfish interests, or trying to foist their warped ideas on our people, will not be permitted to cast a cloud of suspicion over a people whose loyalty stands out pre-eminent in history's pages. Unthinking men are misinformed and sometimes led astray by short-sighted zealots. We may differ in opinion on Irish and American politics, but there is no difference or division when country calls us." The following resolution was adopted and forwarded to President Wilson:

"That the Irish-American League, in pursuance of its aims and purposes, emphatically denounces the acts of individuals who have, through intent or misdirected zeal, violated the neutrality of our country, or have given aid, comfort or information to our enemy."

"We further condemn the effort of these individuals to appeal to the sentiments and Irish love for Ireland by clothing their insidious activities with the green flag. We say that in your wrong you will deal effectively with those who are traitors to our adopted country. "We pray you to show to the American people these unworthy sons who have outraged the traditions of their countrymen, make known their real purpose, the intent of their influence and the source of their financial support. "History records the loyalty of the Irish of this country since its birth. We cherish this splendid heritage and desire to hand it down to their children unsullied and unblemished."

SOLDIERS TO VOTE.

Steel ballot boxes and ballots have been shipped to the New York soldiers in France, giving them an opportunity to vote in the coming election, and according to law they can vote on any day preceding the election of November 6. New York men in the navy are also given the same privilege and one of Uncle Sam's battleships will gather the vote. It is hoped the Federal Government will take some steps to give Kentucky soldiers a chance to vote in the coming election as recommended by the Kentucky State Central Democratic Committee at a recent meeting.

HELPING GOOD SISTERS.

The Sewing Circle of Our Lady of Mercy will have their annual euchre and lotto entertainment in the school hall on Friday, October 26, both afternoon and evening. Prizes both useful and ornamental will be awarded and a delicious luncheon will be served from 5:30 to 8 p. m. All are invited to be present, as the ladies of the circle are anxious to help the good Sisters with their building fund.

A HERO.

He had captured a prisoner, and while they waited for the escort to come up he said: "Have you a wife?" "No," answered the German. "Nine," gasped the Tommy. "Lumme! where's yer Iron Cross?"

IMMENSE FUNERAL CORTEGE.

The funeral procession in Dublin which followed the body of Thomas Ashe, the Sinn Fein leader, who died Thursday of last week, from the City Hall to Glasnevin cemetery on Sunday was extremely large, exceeding in numbers even that of the Parnell funeral in 1891. The procession was very well organized and perfect order was kept. The principal contingents were Irish Volunteers, the Gaelic Athletic Association, the Gaelic League, the Liberty Hall Citizens Army and the Dublin Trade Unions. There were also many representatives from women's clubs. More than a dozen bands played patriotic airs. The three-mile route was lined with spectators and the bells of the Catholic churches were tolled. The Irish Volunteers wore their uniforms and carried hureley sticks, although these were offenses against recent military regulations. There was also a firing party at the grave. The Government authorities did not interfere with the demonstration, which was most impressive.

The embittered feeling over the death of Ashe was much allayed by a change in the policy of the treatment of prisoners under the defense of the resan act. The prisoners are now allowed to associate together and are separated from the ordinary criminals. They are also allowed to receive food from the outside. The hunger strike was abandoned when the Lord Mayor carried this decision of the Government to the prisoners.

TRINITY'S MAMMOTH EUCHRE.

Trinity Council, Y. M. I. will give their annual fall mammoth euchre and lotto at the club house, Baxter and Morton, Wednesday and Thursday, October 24 and 25. A big prize list is being secured and a dance will be given each evening following the euchre with Ernest Luvisi as Chairman of arrangements.

MASSSES DURING WINTER.

For the winter months the masses at St. Mary Magdalene's church will be at 7 and 10 o'clock a. m., with vespers at 3 in the afternoon. Father Gauspohl, the pastor, will say the first mass, while Father Driscoll will celebrate the high mass. Mrs. Fred Rarig is the organist, and has prepared some excellent music for the services.

DEGREE AS TO MARTYR.

The decree by virtue of which His Holiness Benedict XV directed the name of Peter Talbot, Archbishop of Dublin, to be placed on the list of Irish martyrs, whose cause of beatification was introduced in 1914 to the Sacred Congregation of Rites by decree of the Pope, will soon be issued. Archbishop Talbot died a prisoner in the dungeon of Dublin Castle in 1830.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH.

At St. George's church the Forty Hours' devotions will begin tomorrow morning with the high mass, closing Tuesday night with special devotions at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. Father Dominick, of the Passionist order, will preach a sermon at the service each of the three evenings, when there will be recitation of the rosary and benediction.

FRIENDS ARE INVITED.

All friends of the Visitation Home for Working Girls, 615 West Walnut street, are invited to a card party for the benefit of that worthy institution to take place at the Tyler Hotel on the afternoon and evening of Thursday, October 19. Both euchre and lotto will be played, and for all there will be hours of real enjoyment.

DEMOCRATIC ADDITION.

A lusty little shout for the Democratic ticket arrived at the home of Adolph Schmitt, Democratic nominee for Tax Receiver, last Monday, and the proud father says he will enter him in the Shelby Democratic Club in time to participate in the election rallies.

BISHOP OF BOSTON.

Right Rev. Joseph G. Anderson, Bishop of Boston and auxiliary to Cardinal O'Connell, passed his fifty-second birthday last Sunday. Bishop Anderson was ordained to the priesthood on May 20, 1892, and his consecration as Bishop took place July 25, 1909. He is a quiet but earnest worker and enjoys the respect of non-Catholics as well as Catholics.

WATCHED YOUR WELFARE.

Let the young people who read this never lose an opportunity to say a kind word to their parents. Your parents have planned for your best interests all these years. They may sometimes (their nervous system all used up by the cares, and losses, the disappointments, the worries of life) be more irritable than they ought to be, and they probably have faults which have become oppressive as the years go by. But those eyes, long before they took on spectacles, were watching for your welfare, and their hands, not as smooth and more deeply lined than once, have done for you many a good day's work. Life has been to them more of a struggle than you shall ever know about, and much of the struggle has been for you, and how much they are wrapped up in your welfare you will never appreciate.

John J. Mulroy was awarded $40 in gold for securing most new members in the Baltimore contest just ended.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Portland, Ore., will stage a comedy to raise funds to furnish a mass outfit for a war chaplain.

There is interest and enthusiasm at the meetings of the Ladies' Auxiliary in Minneapolis when visited by the Irish Literary Club.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of South Omaha meets frequently at the homes of members and spends the evening very pleasantly.

Omaha Hibernians will be represented with a striking float in the Ak-Sar-Ben parade, the big event of the year in that city.

The membership of the order in Ireland and Great Britain is 55,386. This does not include the insured members, numbering 200,000.

Division 2 of Baltimore won the flag contest for securing the largest number of new members. Division 6 won the other flag on the pro rata basis.

"Hoover special" refreshments, arranged by the ladies, were the feature of the social side of the meeting of the order Monday night at Portland, Ore.

Members of the Third Oregon said good-bye to their friends at the last meeting of the Ancient Order in Portland and requested authority to organize a division from the boys in the ranks.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Washington, D. C., presented Rev. Lewis J. O'Brien, C. S. P., with a check for $500, to be used by him for the soldiers and sailors in any manner he deems advisable.

Division 2 of Rome, N. Y., held a reception for members before their departure for army service. After spirited addresses by Very Rev. Father Carson and others the soldier boys were presented prayer books, soldiers' comfort kits, passports of the order and receipts for their dues in full until the termination of the war.

EVENING CLASSES OPENED.

Evening classes in English and stenography opened at St. Helena's Commercial College, 625 Fourth avenue, Monday evening, October 1. Any standard shorthand system may be studied, including the fast and very accurate new Speedway method, which affords rapid writing with great reading power, in half the time usually devoted to the mastery of shorthand. The English course includes the study of spelling, grammar, sentence writing, definitions, pronunciation, punctuation, word distinction, errors of daily usage, English literature and readings from the classics. A custom which has proven popular, interesting and most beneficial is the weekly story telling. Each girl is assigned a classic short story to read, and which she is required to narrate in her best English to the class, who rewrite the tale and hand their papers for correction.

OCTOBER INTENTION.

The intention recommended by His Holiness Pope Benedict XV. for the members of the League of the Sacred Heart during October is the spread of the Apostleship of Prayer among the young. Our Holy Father Benedict XV. knew full well the importance of leading the little ones of the flock closer to Christ. The love which we implant in youthful souls for the Sacred Heart of Jesus will bear fruit in the coming years, for if we nurture with care in our Catholic youth the true love of the Sacred Heart and all that this beautiful devotion signifies we shall be instilling a hatred of sin and a zeal to make reparation for the sins of others. Such devotion is bound to tell in their lives. The child who is taught to offer up every morning the prayers, works and sufferings of the day to the Sacred Heart in reparation for sin and who is brought frequently to the altar rail by love of the Sacred Heart will soon show the needed spiritual strength to resist the temptations that are certain, sooner or later, to cross its path. Again, we know how pleasing to God are the prayers of innocent hearts. He is ever ready to hear and grant the petitions of his little ones. How powerful will not their prayers be as members of the league in obtaining for the church and for all our associates the favors needed and requested of the Sacred Heart! "Suffer the little children to come to me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God." As our little ones are so dear to Christ, let us then show our zeal and see that they are enrolled in the Apostleship of Prayer and taught the real meaning of devotion to the Sacred Heart. Every Catholic school may become a center of the league and every classroom a fruitful nursery of promoters in the great apostolic work.

NEWS FROM CAMP.

Announcement that Rev. Father Edward Mahoney, of New York City, had been assigned to Camp Zachary Taylor as an army chaplain and would celebrate mass Sunday morning, attracted a large crowd to the Knights of Columbus building, many of the soldiers receiving holy communion. The three buildings are now nearly furnished and will soon be ready for the formal opening.

Alphonse Ohlischlager, who was appointed Secretary of the Knights of Columbus work at Camp Zachary Taylor, was called into the new army with the second quota and had to relinquish the work. He is now in the engineering department. Ben Sandmann has been appointed as Secretary with Will Kelly as assistant. They will soon be located permanently at the camp. For the past few years Secretary Sandmann has been engaged in the legal department of the L. & N. Railroad Company. He is fast getting things in shape so as to have the three buildings open all the time. When seen, Tuesday, he said:

"The National Committee on War Activities of the Knights of Columbus is going to equip the Auditorium and two club buildings at Camp Zachary Taylor with Columbia Grafonolas. These are promised for delivery on Friday of this week, and while a small number of records will be sent, nevertheless we would like to ask any interested parties to go over their cabinets and if there are two new records that are somewhat old please send us a postal card and a messenger will be sent to call for them. Victor records can also be played on the Columbia machine and the same request would apply to good books and to sheet music as well as music rolls, for each building will also have a player piano. The committee begs to assure you that the above will be appreciated by the soldier boys now quartered here."

For the information of friends who may want to attend mass at the Auditorium on the Poplar Level read tomorrow it may be stated that the Knights of Columbus will have streets commencing at 6 o'clock in the morning and every hour thereafter.

AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP.

The Knights of Columbus team in its last two series with Cincinnati and New Orleans played some of the finest defense games ever seen here. The infield, with Dave Hammond on first, Capt. Keneally at second, Bud O'Brien on third and Bossmeyer, the peer of all local infielders, at short, the Knights present the fastest array of amateur talent procurable. Bossmeyer's work at short has been the sensation of the elimination series, accepting fourteen chances against New Orleans without the semblance of a misplay. Manager Bresnahan, of the Mud Hens, tried hard to get the K. C. short stop to join his club on their last trip here, but Bossmeyer preferred to play amateur ball and hold his position with the Illinois Central railway, rather than take a chance with a tail end club. The Knights' outfield is composed of Clifford in left, Hamilton in center and Bosler and O'Laughlin playing right. All of these outfielders have played remarkable ball, Hamilton winning the Cincinnati game with his three-base drive, and Clifford with his wonderful fielding kept the New Orleans score down. Bohannon and Ballard must both be given credit for taking hold and pitching after Ciresi broke down in the Cincinnati twelve-inning game on Labor day. It was up to the Knights' other hurlers to battle for supremacy against Cincinnati and New Orleans, and now that Ciresi has had a two weeks rest he will be called on to pitch the first game of the most important series of the year. Louisville has tried for six years to win a world's championship title.

Among the new sewing units of the local chapter of the Red Cross which have been formed recently is that of the Sacred Heart congregation which already has a large membership. Many other units have been organized and the good work is being continued in all sections of the city and county.

Adapting itself to new conditions that constantly arise with the progress of the war the Louisville Chapter has established both day and night classes in surgical dressings, the members of which will be taught to make compresses and other surgical dressings required in the treatment of wounds by the irrigation method, an invention by Dr. Alexis Carrel, which has proven one of the greatest things in the war, as by its means wounds heal much quicker than formerly. Mrs. Fulton Mandeville and Mrs. J. Stoddard Johnson, Jr., will be in charge of these classes. Leaders in the Red Cross work do not slacken in their efforts to have still more units and every woman in the county and city is being urged to devote some of her time to this all important work. Much of the work—knitting, sewing and the preparation of comfort bags for the soldiers—may be done at home, and with approaching winter it is hoped that the number of workers will rapidly increase.

ST. CECILIA'S.

A musicale, eucire and lotto will be given by the LaSalle Club of the Blessed Virgin's Sodality of St. Cecilia's church in the school hall, Twenty-fifth and St. Cecilia, on Tuesday evening, October 16, for the benefit of the new school. The musical programme will be rendered at 8 o'clock and eucire and lotto games will be called at 8:30. Handsome prizes have been secured and each one not receiving a prize will be entitled to draw for the tally prize—$2.50 in gold. In addition to the above a beautiful quilt and a pair of hand-embroidered pillow slips will be disposed of. Admission will be free. The following afternoon, October 17, from 2:30 to 5 o'clock, a "children's penny social" will be held in the school hall. Admission will be one cent, country store one cent, grab bag one cent, etc. The young ladies extend an invitation to all their friends to come and help make their entertainments a success.

THROUGH THE CHURCH.

St. Michael's church on Brook street was thronged last Sunday morning and evening when the feast of St. Michael was observed with impressive services, procession and one of the largest choirs ever heard here. The Rev. Father Enos, O. P., preached at both the morning and evening services, and made an impression on his hearers that will be lasting. His sermons were pronounced unsurpassed by any ever heard in that old-time church edifice.
